Endorsement of Notes and Assignment of Mortgages as a Basis for Standing to Bring a Mortgage Foreclosure Lawsuit in Illinois

What CLE Training (2 hrs. CLE credit)

When August 2, 2010 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m.

Where The John Marshall Law School
315 South Plymouth Court, Room 200, Chicago, Illinois 60604

Program Judges from the Circuit Court of Cook County's Chancery Division Mortgage Foreclosure/Mechanics Lien Calendar will discuss the requirements of standing in Illinois state courts in foreclosure cases, the endorsement of notes under the Uniform Commercial Code, mortgage assignments, and related issues. Because of loan securitization and increasingly frequent allegations that borrowers did not understand or were misled into entering transactions they could not afford, questions of who owns the right to foreclosure and what defenses can be raised have become increasingly complex and contentious. This program will explore these issues.

Cost $50 - Free to JMLS faculty, adjuncts, and staff.
