

Survey Results: The State Budget Impasse Is Causing Homelessness in Illinois
Advocates Call for a Responsible Budget with Adequate Revenue

Homeless Service Provider Contacts for Media Inquiries

For more information contact: Bob Palmer, Policy Director, Housing Action Illinois at 312-282-3959 (cell) or bob@housingactionil.org

Additional homeless service provider contacts are available upon request.

Jackie Edens
Executive Director
Inner Voice, Chicago
312.994.4351 office
312-636-0090 cell

Has 187 units of housing with supportive services. Had to lay off 3 out of 4 social workers that provided support services to formerly homeless people to keep them stable in housing

Evan Cauble-Johnson
Inspiration Corporation, Chicago
773-878-0981 ext 204

Has 137 units of housing with supportive services. Had to lay off 3 staff. Case loads greatly increased. Some people will no longer receive services. Has stories from residents.

Dr. Sanja Stinson
Executive Director
Matthew House, Chicago
773-339-8216

Laid off 2.5 staff from supportive housing program. Cut transportation and mental health services.

Felix R. Matlock, Jr.
Regional Vice President, Resident Services
Mercy Housing Lakefront, Chicago
312-447-4500

Had to close computer labs, which aid in job searching, resume building, skill development. Case management personnel have been reduced and if the impasse continues, case management services will be further impacted.

Rick Velasquez
Executive Director
Youth Outreach Services, Chicago
773-777-7112 ext. 7225 (office)
773.852.3238 (cell)

One of their adolescent substance abuse treatment programs has been closed, impacting 90 youth. If the budget impasse is not resolved in September, they will have to eliminate their host home and shelter services for runaway and homeless youth.

Rod Lane
Executive Director
Helping Hands of Springfield
217-502-9503

Staff is sacrificing with more work and less pay to keep budget impasse from impacting people agency services.

Sarah Parker-Scanlon

Shelter Care Ministries
Interim Executive Director, Rockford
Office 815-964-5520 ext 281
Cell 815-708-2494

Unable to pay utility bills at many of their rental properties for homeless families.

Sherrie Crabb

Executive Director
Family Counseling Center, Inc., Vienna
Office: 618.658.2611
Cell: 618.658.0764

Family Counseling Center just recently acquired additional services due to the forced closure of another mental health agency, Delta Center, Inc. within our service area. As a result, 65% of the Delta Center workforce was lost and several programs/sites were shut down including a HUD-sponsored housing program for the homeless.

Isak Griffiths

Executive Director
Courage Connections, Champaign-Urbana
IGriffiths@courageconnection.org
217-819-4611

Only has cash on hand to make one more payroll in September.

Lynda Schueler

Executive Director
Housing Forward, Maywood
708.338.1724 x223

Proposed cut in state funding does not cover required match for federal funding.

Valencia Whitely

Executive Director
Interdependent Living Solutions Center, Homewood
708-365-6663

If the budget impasse continues disabled veterans and adults will lose their housing and will either be sent to nursing homes or be homeless

Pat Davenport
Executive Director
A Safe Place for Help, Zion
847-731-7165

Number of calls to crisis line for domestic violence victims has increased by 45% due to reduction of services at other agencies and own resources to serve victims have also been reduced.

Patty Mullen
Assistant Director
Good Samaritan Ministries, Carbondale
618-457-5794 (work)
618-559-5296 (cell)

If does not see state grant funds by mid-September will be forced to cut hours and programs.

Lynn O'Shea
President/CEO
Association for Individual Development, Aurora
630-966-4000

They have a client with severe mental health issues who has lived independently with a state funded rental subsidy for several years. Her landlord recently received a letter from the subsidy administrator that because there is no state budget and funds are frozen, her rent payments will be delayed. The client is continuing to pay her portion of the rent, but if the state doesn't pay their share the tenant may very well be evicted.