The Chicago Bungalow

Since 1910
The Chicago Bungalow

- Today
The Chicago Bungalow

- Built 1910-1940
- Representative of Arts & Crafts movement
- ~80,000 bungalows form “belt” around city center
- Reflects Chicago’s socioeconomic & cultural diversity
HCBA

- Launched in September, 2000
- Non-profit group dedicated to helping homeowners preserve, maintain and adapt their unique Chicago bungalows
- 15,000+ members reflect Chicago’s socioeconomic & cultural diversity
- 8,000+ have taken advantage of HCBA services
HCBA Free Membership

- Benefits offered to encourage the rehab, restoration and greening of Chicago bungalows include:
  - Free Energy Efficiency Grants (valued at $4,000 dollars)
  - Free “How-to” Seminars & Workshops offered city-wide
  - Architectural Design Guidance & Resources
Certification & Membership

- Outreach
  - 25,000 Bungalows certified
  - 15,000 HCBA members
  - Over 8,000 have taken advantage of HCBA services